5TH INTERNATIONAL BALKAN STUDIES CONGRESS PROCEEDINGS

The 5th International Balkan Studies Congress has been actively operating for years with the aim of fostering interdisciplinary collaboration and deepening scholarly research on the Balkan region. We extend our gratitude to over 200 young researchers who have contributed their work to this Congress. For the past five years, these studies have offered diverse, creative, and impactful perspectives on the complex and multifaceted issues of the Balkans.

The primary objective of our Congress is to create a dynamic platform for scholars to share research findings, insights, and innovative ideas related to Balkan studies.
